VENEZUELA CHARGE D'AFFAIRS LEAVES

Diplomatic Relations
With U. S. Are Severed

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9.—The diplomatic relations between America and Venezuela that have existed uninterruptedly for more than half a century, though in recent years severely strained, were today completely severed. At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Senor Veloz-Gotico, the Venezuelan Charge d'Affaires, called at the State Department by appointment to present to Acting Secretary Bacon notice from his Government that he was to quit his post here, closing up the Venezuelan Legation in Washington and repair forthwith to Venezuela.

The Charge executed his commission punctiliously. In a few minutes he explained to the Acting Secretary that the action of the State Department in withdrawing Jacob Sleeper, the American Charge, from Caracas, and in closing its Legation there, made it necessary for his Government to take similar action in the case of its Legation in Washington. Therefore, he was leaving the capital at the earliest possible moment that he could arrange his domestic affairs to do so, which will be tomorrow, and will proceed directly to New York, there to take passage for Venezuela on Saturday. The Minister leaves behind him in Washington his family and household effects, but these will probably follow him to Venezuela in the near future.

Farewell of the Envoy
Just what took place between Acting Secretary Bacon and the Charge cannot be learned, beyond the fact that the latter presented his letters of recall. He made no demand for his passports, nor could he do so consistently in view of the fact that Foreign Minister Paul had declined to issue such passports to the American Charge when he withdrew from Caracas on the ground that there was no necessity for passports, the country being in profound peace and his person not being threatened in any way.

Senor Veloz did communicate with Bacon the fact that the files and papers of the Venezuelan Legation would be placed in the custody of Senor Jacobo Pimental, the Venezuelan Consul General in New York. This statement is regarded as an indication that the Venezuelan Government will follow the precedent established by the United States in not closing the consulate, despite the breach in diplomatic relations. No arrangement has been made for the transaction of any diplomatic business which Venezuela might find it absolutely necessary to transact, through some unforeseen contingency.

No Danger of War
It is pointed by officials who followed closely the developments in the Venezuelan situation that there is not the slightest danger of war in the immediate future or, indeed, at all. Rather will the situation resemble that following the rupture of diplomatic relations between France and Venezuela, for instance, where Legations were closed on both sides and all official relations terminated, while trade between the two countries continued and Frenchmen came to Venezuela and rich Venezuelans made their annual pilgrimages to Paris as if nothing had occurred.

Story of the Trouble
Senor Veloz's withdrawal follows that of Minister Russell, last diplomatic representative of the United States to Venezuela, about two months ago, and that of Mr. Sleeper, the secretary of Legation, and Lieutenant Ruggles, the military attaché, about two weeks ago. The reason for the withdrawal of the American Legation from Caracas arose from the persistent refusal of Venezuela to give redress for the Governmental action by which all American interests in Venezuela were either destroyed or confiscated or to submit the claims of American citizens to arbitration.

Chicago, July 15.—Twenty-seven white girls have been kidnapped and sold into white slavery among the Chinese residents of Chicago through a clearing-house organized for such traffic, according to reports made to the police today. Many of these girls are daughters of refined families, and all are now voluntary or involuntary inmates of Chinese dens. Pending efforts to find and rescue the young women, the police refuse to reveal their names.

The wholesale marketing of young womanhood was made public through the arrest of Sam Gee and Goo Fong. Their associates, Isabel Held, 17 years old, and sold and tears told a story to Lieutenant Joel Smith which convinced that official that a clearing-house for white slave traffic was in his precinct.

Miss Held's revelations tended to show that of all the white girls missing at least twenty-seven had been abducted and sold through the slave clearing-house to Chinese.
